

SPAR European Cross Country Championships, (Dublin 13th December 2009)

Following the official announcement of Tickets sales yesterday for the SPAR European Cross Country Championships, we are delighted to be offering discounted ticket prices to all of our members to come along and enjoy this prestigious event.

Details will be posted out to clubs in the coming week including promotional codes for Ticketmaster. Senior Member tickets will be €10 (plus service charge) while Juvenile members will be given FREE entry.

Discounted tickets will also be available at all National Championships on the months running up to the event allowing members and athletics fans to benefit by not incurring a booking charge.

Attendance by our membership at this prestigious event is extremely important to its success and to making it a memorable occasion for everyone.

Please encourage as many people from the Athletics Ireland community be part of the day. It will provide a unique opportunity to see Europe's best athletes in action. Ireland will be competing for medals in almost every category and we look forward to seeing as many people as possible cheer them on!
